Attendance Requirements

The attendance requirement for a visa student in the UK is that you attend your course in person on a regular basis.

In addition, you must complete all written assignments and attend all classes.

If you miss too many classes, the college may take disciplinary action against you. This could include receiving a warning, being suspended from your course, or even being asked to leave your course.

In addition to the attendance requirements, you also have other responsibilities, as a student on your visa in the UK.

These include:

- Enrolling on your course
- Paying your fees
- Not working in the UK
- Return to the home country at the end of your visa

If you fail to meet your responsibilities as a student on your visa, you could be at risk of having your visa revoked.

Here are a few examples of how attendance requirements must be met:

- You are required to attend at least 70% of your classes
- You must not miss more than two classes in a row unless approved by the college
- If you are going to be absent from a class, you must notify the college in advance

If you are unsure about your attendance requirements, you should seek clarification from the college.
